

Strada Agro

Origin: South Africa

Strada Agro is a dynamic business branch dedicated to the global trading of high-quality agricultural products sourced from Africa.

Our focus is on premium produce all selected for their exceptional quality and unique flavors. By establishing direct relationships with local farmers and producers, Strada Agro ensures that our products are sustainably sourced and ethically traded. We aim to highlight Africa's agricultural richness while providing international markets with fresh, delicious, and unique offerings.

With a commitment to transparency and quality, Strada Agro leverages innovative logistics and distribution networks to efficiently deliver these products worldwide. Our target audience includes wholesalers, retailers, and gourmet food businesses looking to expand their offerings with premium African agricultural goods.

At Strada Agro, we are not just trading products; we are sharing stories, cultures, and the rich heritage of African agriculture with the world.

Our range of products include but not limited to:

- Avacado
- Apple
- Grapes
- Pear
- Orange/Naatjie
